Considering that a common scientific and professional interest should be developed, convinced that establishing a relationship of permanent cooperation and exchange is one of the fundamental elements for ensuring adequate scientific research in the field of research, valorisation and presentation of Serbian and Romanian cultural heritage, wanting to achieve a stronger professional and scientific basis for preserving and affirming Romanian and Serbian spirituality and culture,

INSTITUTE FOR SERBIAN CULTURE PRISTINA - LEPOSAVIC

and

INSTITUTE OF HISTORY AND THEORY OF LITERATURE "G. CALINESCU" conclude

COOPERATION AGREEMENT

The agreement aims to implement common aspirations to improve cooperation in the field of science and profession and to establish and improve cooperation between the signatory parties.

The Parties agree that this Agreement covers, but is not limited to, the following matters:

- joint scientific research projects
- exchange of professional experiences and experts
- exchange of publications
- joint scientific research and other projects in publishing, exhibition and other related activities
- joint education and training projects
- study meetings between members of the signatories
- participation of scientific researchers from both institutions organized by one of the signatory parties

Each of the signatory parties shall, with its annual programs and work plans, specify the types and scope of cooperation in the next calendar year and inform the other signatory party in a timely manner.

This contract is concluded for an indefinite period of time.

Each Party reserves the right to review the implementation of this Agreement and to request a new assessment from the other Party to ensure that the objectives of the Agreement are achieved to the mutual satisfaction.

The contract enters into force on the day of signing.

The Agreement is concluded in four equal copies, two of which for each party by the parties.
